

EXHIBITOR & SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Science Coach Academy is an intensive professional development conference specifically for 6th–12th grade science research teachers who want to elevate their research teaching skills and gain confidence in leading students through advanced, original research projects. Participants immerse themselves in a dynamic program of classes and hands-on workshops that span a wide range of scientific fields, including agriculture, engineering, psychology, plant biotechnology, forensics and ecotoxicity.

The 2025 Science Coach Academy drew teachers from across the country, with strong representation from Missouri, Kansas, and Illinois. Anticipated attendance at the 2026 Academy: 100+ research teachers.
